Oppenheimer has established protocols for employees and former employees to notify Oppenheimer of such matters in a safe, reliable and, if desired, confidential manner. The following means of submission of complaints and concerns are intended to complement rather than replace any alternative means of submission set forth in Oppenheimer's Code of Conduct.

TREATMENT OF COMPLAINTS AND CONCERNS

All complaints and concerns will be taken seriously. Employee complaints and concerns initially received by the General Counsel will, as a general matter, be copied (or, if received verbally, summarized) and promptly forwarded to the Audit Committee Chair unless, in the judgment of the General Counsel, the complaint or concern, upon initial review, (i) does not relate to either a Financial Reporting Matter or (ii) is frivolous or not credible (collectively a “Non-Reportable Matter”). Additionally, the General Counsel or the Audit Committee Chair, depending upon who initially received the concern or complaint, shall immediately apprise the Head of Oppenheimer’s Internal Audit Department of such concern or complaint. Complaints subject to this policy received by the InTouch System will be forwarded to the Audit Committee Chair, the General Counsel and the Chief Financial Officer.

As soon as reasonably practicable following receipt and initial review of an Employee complaint or concern, the General Counsel or, if applicable, the Audit Committee Chair, will acknowledge receipt of the complaint or concern to the sender, unless sent anonymously. If a determination has been made that the complaint or concern is a Non-Reportable Matter, the complaint or concern will be acknowledged and such determination may be set forth in such acknowledgement.

Complaints and concerns that are determined to relate to a Financial Reporting Matter (and that are not otherwise a Non-Reportable Matter) will be reported to the Audit Committee and will be investigated, subject to Audit Committee direction and oversight, by the General Counsel or such other persons, which may include outside counsel, as the Audit Committee determines to be appropriate. Confidentiality will be maintained with respect to all Employee complaints to the fullest extent reasonably practicable, consistent with the need to conduct an adequate investigation.

Responsive action to an investigated complaint or concern will be determined in the judgment of the Audit Committee. Any action taken (or the decision not to take any action) shall promptly be communicated to the sender of the complaint or concern, if sent on other than anonymous terms. Additionally, any Employee who knowingly and intentionally files a false report or provides false or deliberately misleading information in connection with a Financial Reporting Matter may face disciplinary action.

REPORTING AND RETENTION OF COMPLAINTS AND CONCERN

The General Counsel and, as applicable, the Audit Committee Chair will maintain a written record of all reported complaints and concerns, including their receipt, acknowledgement, investigation and resolution and shall together prepare or cause to be prepared a periodic (but not less than quarterly) summary report thereof for the Audit Committee. Copies of the complaints and concerns (and any summary or written record reflecting them) will be maintained for a period of at least five years from receipt. Any member of the Audit Committee shall at any time, upon request, be given prompt access to the complete underlying complaint or concern reflected in any written record.

RETALIATION PROHIBITED

The reporting of complaints and concerns regarding Financial Reporting Matters is encouraged by Oppenheimer. In accordance with the law and the policies of Oppenheimer, retaliation of any kind against any Employee of Oppenheimer who submits in good faith a complaint or concern regarding a Financial Reporting Matter, or who assists in good faith in the investigation (whether by Oppenheimer or any regulatory authority or law enforcement agency) of any alleged wrongdoing involving a Financial Reporting Matter is strictly prohibited.

Any acts of retaliation must be reported immediately to your supervisor who, in turn, must report the act of retaliation to any of the persons named in Oppenheimer's Code of Conduct to which this is a supplement.

If the Employee is uncomfortable reporting to his or her supervisor and believes that his or her supervisor may have a conflict of interest in responding to the retaliation, or the supervisor is unavailable and the matter is urgent, the Employee is encouraged to report any act of retaliation to any of the persons named in Section 14 of the Code of Conduct. Acts of retaliation may result in severe disciplinary action against the individual(s) causing such retaliation, including termination of employment.

Nothing in this Policy shall prohibit or restrict the Claimant from lawfully: (A) initiating communications directly with, cooperating with, providing relevant information to, or otherwise assisting in an investigation by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), FINRA, or any other governmental or regulatory body or official or SRO regarding a possible violation of any applicable law, rule, or regulation; (B) responding to any inquiry from any such governmental or regulatory body or official or SRO or governmental authority, including an inquiry about the existence of this Settlement Agreement or its underlying facts or circumstances; or (C) testifying, participating, or otherwise assisting in an action or proceeding relating to a possible violation of any such law, rule, or regulation. Further, nothing in this Settlement Agreement shall prohibit or restrict the Claimant (or his/her attorney) from initiating communications directly with, or responding to any inquiry from, or providing testimony before, the SEC, FINRA or any other SRO, or any other federal or state regulatory authority, regarding this settlement or its underlying facts or circumstances, or regarding any potentially fraudulent or suspicious activities. Nor does this Policy require the Claimant to notify Oppenheimer of any such communications, cooperation, assistance, responses to inquiries, testimony, or participation as described in this paragraph."
